Good-bye Broadway, Hello France,
We're ten million strong.

Good-bye New-York town, Good-bye Miss Liberty,
Your light of freedom will guide us across the sea.

Every soldier's sweetheart, We're united in this flight for liberty.

Every soldier's mother, Whose deeds and fame we cannot forget.

Choir up we'll soon be there,
Now that we have the chance,
We'll pay our debt to France.

Good-bye Broadway, Hello France,
We're fighting too.

So Good-bye Broadway, Hello France,
We're going to square our debt to France.
"If I Had A Son for Each Star in Old Glory"

Here's a MOTHER'S song of patriotism that is setting the U. S. A. aflame. It is the prize song of the war. Millions—from Maine to California—are singing it. It is doing its bit by helping recruit regiments for Uncle Sam. Get this song today and enlist your voice for Old Glory. It's a stirring march and a corking one step.

"I Called You My Sweetheart"

"Oh, for a love ballad that is different"—cries the public. Here it is. Stars for eyes, roses for cheeks—get this great love song and learn how the angels make sweethearts in Heaven. Its melody is delightfully different. It's a tonic for the blues and a ticket straight thru to Loveland. Try it.

CHORUS

They took the stars Out of the blue, dear, gave them to you, dear, for eyes, They picked a rose, Covered with dew, dear, then made those checks, I fear; They made your
